Marketing description (short) Our modern fleece fabrics are much more compact than traditional materials, but they still provide all the protection you need against wind and chill.

Marketing description (long) [A must have] They're comfortable, cosy and give you protection against the wind and the chill. What's not to like about these staples of the workwear wardrobe?

Our modern fleece fabrics are much more compact than traditional materials, but they still provide all the protection you need against wind and chill. And they give a much smoother surface - so they're ideal for decoration. Even an exceptionally comfortable, cosy outdoor fleece can be sleek and smart. Our paneled construction gives a slimmer, sleeker look that's a subtle reminder of the fleece's sportswear heritage.

Decorator Notes The smooth compact fabric enhances the quality and appearance of decoration.
